Lannings Recipe of the Week

GRILLED PORK LOIN

INGREDIENTS

- 1 (4 to 5-lb) boneless pork loin, fat still attached
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Heat a grill to high. Pat the port loin dry. Rub it generously with salt and fresh pepper.
2. Grill the pork loin for a few minutes on high, or until dark grill marks appear on all sides of the pork. Let it get nice and blackened in a few places, for flavor.
3. Turn the grill down to the lowest heat, or move the pork loin to a spot where it will only receive indirect heat. You want the grill to about 300 to 350° F. Cover the grill, and let the pork loin cook for about an hour. Check it after 30 minutes, inserting a probe thermometer to check the temperature.
4. When the pork hits 145° F. take it off the grill. Let it rest about 15 minutes, tented with foil. The temp inside will rise at it rests. Slice and serve.
